ABSENT: Doug Ermshar, Jon Lail, Lyle McCoy, Noel Ojeda

PRAYER: Virgil Morris

INTRODUCTIONS: Pres. Barbara introduced the Board members and other visitors present. There were more than 125 persons present.

FIRE DEPT.: Chief Brown gave a heartfelt presentation about the Fire Dept. and what being a volunteer is all about. Visual displays were set up in the main bay of the firehouse. There was a video of the training burn on Sunday, March 13, produced by Timothy Spelletich. There was also a display of a series of photographs showing Fire Dept. events. Many firefighters were present in their dress uniforms. They had a table complete with additional information about becoming a firefighter. Care to join? Call Brian at 965-6551.

MAJOR EVENTS: May 15 – Hazardous material collection
May 22 – Flea Market
June 5 – Angwin Clean-up Day
June 6 – Chipper Program

AMBULANCE: Billy Saunders, a new recruit for the Angwin Ambulance spoke about why he is so committed to being a volunteer. He was a pre-med who switched to nursing. He described some of the Ambulance Company activities. He said the Ambulance Co. needs more volunteers, too.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES: Duane Cronk explained about the Angwin Volunteer Services and asked for some younger people around 65 or so. Most of the volunteers are in their 80's. Angwin Volunteers help provide transportation to doctor appointments, and other necessary trips for those who have no transportation of their own.

DIANE DILLON: Supervisor Dillon spoke about Measure A and answered many questions from the audience. There were many present from the Howell Mt. Water Co. The County is just hiring 2 engineers and they should have a report by summer. She fielded questions re our forests in Angwin and indicated that the County has a hard time protecting them, because of State regulations.

REFRESHMENTS: There were trays of fruit, cheese, vegetables, cookies, etc. provided by Marjorie Burns. All enjoyed the evening very much.

COUNCIL MEETINGS: The Board is planning to hold quarterly open community meetings. If you missed this one, please listen for the next one and plan to be there.

NEXT BOARD MEETING: The next Board meeting is scheduled for April, 19, 2005. Angwin residents are welcome. Board members, please mark your calendars. The meeting is held at the Firehouse at 7. p.m.
